

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

INDEX.

Appendix	264
Barnes, John, a Forgotten Philanthropist of Georgetown, 39. Birth, early life and removal to America, 40. Friendly relations with Jefferson, 41. Takes charge of the Kosciusko estate and is appointed Collector of Customs, 42. Inscription on tombstone and obituary notice, 43. Provides in his will for his slaves and the town poor, 44. His next of kin at the time of his death, 45. Efforts to break the will, 46. Heirs and Corporation compromise, 47. The Barnes bequest absorbed by the District charities, 48.
Brown, Glenn, Remarks by, in a discussion.....	114
Bryan, Wilhelmus B., Communication by.....	71
City Hall Neighborhood, Old Residences and Family History in the, 146. Fugitt family and Dr. James Chestney, 146. Masonic Hall, 147. Rear Admiral Dahlgren and Richard Wallach, 148. The Hobans and Mr. Webb, 149. Ashton S. H. White, 150. Samuel Stettinius, Thomas Galt and B. F. Middleton, 151. J. F. Ennis' office and the Davidge residence, 152. The Swan houses, Canterbury Hall and the home of Johnson Hellen, 153. Mrs. Duncan's boarding house, 154. Home of Daniel Webster and afterwards of Hamilton G. Fant, 155. Conditions on which Mr. Fant purchased the property, 156. Unitarian Church, 157. Walter Lennox house, and the Burns-Chandler property, 158. Crutchett's hotel, 159. Home of John Marron, 160. Dr. Gale's part in the Morse telegraph, 161. The Goodrich and Powell homes, 162. The Stone house, 163. Homes of W. W. G. White and Richard S. Coxe; tribute to the memory of Mrs. Frankland Jannus, 164. Houses built by John Purdy and W. S. Drummond, 165. Home of Dr. G. M. Dove and the Cutler House, 166. Temperance Hotel, 167. House built by F. X. Kennedy, 168. The Birth home, 169.
Committees for 1904.....	265
Communications made to the Society during 1903.....	274
Erratum in volume 6 of The Records.....	284
Fort Washington, Historic, on the Potomac, 1. Explorations by Leonard Calvert and his band, 1. Good offices of Henry Fleet, the captive, 2. Founding of St. Mary's and establishing of a garrison at the mouth of Piscataway Creek, 3. Result of Gen. Washington's examination of the country around the upper Potomac, 4. Social intercourse and business relations between the owners of Warburton and Mount Vernon, 5-7. Washington-Digges correspondence, 5-9. Thomas Digges inherits Warburton, 7. President Madison sends L'Enfant to Fort Washington to report on its condition, 9. Gen. Wilkinson's description of the fort, 10. The coming of the British, 11. The Monroe-L'Enfant-Marsteller correspondence, 12, 13. Fort Washington blown up, 14. Deterioration of the fort for want of proper care, 15. To-day it flies the garrison flag, 16.

Hagner, Alexander B., Communication by..... 237

Hotels of Washington Prior to 1814, 71. Hotels or "taverns" used as landmarks before the days of directories, 72. Liquor licenses, 72, 73. Early taverns comparatively small, 73. The City Tavern of Alexandria and the Union Tavern of Georgetown, 74. Blodgett's "Great Hotel" and the Federal Lottery, 75. Earliest hotel within the city limits, 76. Communication by ferry, bridge and mail coach, 77. The Little Hotel, 78-82. Capitol Hill Tavern, 78. New Tavern, Tunnicliff's Eastern Branch Hotel and the first newspaper published in the City of Washington, 79. Lovell's Hotel, 82. The Fountain Hotel, 83. Morin's Tavern and Tunnicliff's Washington City Hotel, 84. Pontius D. Stelle's several locations, 86-88, 90-93, 100, 101. Some Georgetown inns, 88. Early boarding houses, 89. First Congressional Directory, 94. First market house, 95. Woodward's Centre Tavern and Meyers' Centre House Inn, 96. Doyne's boarding house, 97. Miss Finagin's boarding house, the Washington and Baltimore post road and the Lindsay House, 98. Meeting place of the Circuit Court of the District, 99. Death of George W. Lindsay and obituary notice, 100. Various occupants of Carroll's Row and burning of Tomlinson's Hotel, 101. Taverns in the vicinity of the Navy Yard and first hotel on F Street, 102. Spring on F Street and market taverns, 103. William O'Neal, cooper, coal merchant and hotel proprietor, 104. First road house, 105. Summary for 1814, 106.

Houses of Brick Imported from England, 195. Maryland records show but three small importations, 195, 196. "Beverly" not built of imported brick, 197. Bricks exported from Virginia to the Bermudas as nearly as 1622, 198. "King" Carter of Virginia, built with native bricks, 199. Ancient clay pits and kilns in the vicinity of many old brick houses, 200. Staffordshire brickmakers, masons, potters, etc., in colonial Virginia, 201. Good bricks made in profusion but native tiles unsatisfactory, 202. Bills extant for moulding and burning bricks for the Capitol at Williamsburg, 203. Penn's description of Philadelphia in 1684, 204. Good brick-clay in the neighborhood of Annapolis, 205. Brick pavements in New

- York before 1700, 206. Exportation of stone, bricks and tiles from Holland stopped because they were not worth the freight to New York, 207. Jefferson recorded the want of beauty and durability in early Virginia houses, 208. Few brick structures in England in Shakspeare's time, 209. American bricks better than English, 210.
- Jackson, Miss Cordelia, Communication by..... 39
- Johnston, Miss Elizabeth Bryant, Remarks by, on massacre of the Susquehannock Indians 18
- Johnston, W. Dawson, Communication by..... 20
- Looker, Henry B., Communication by..... 66
- Lyric Element in American History, The, 211. Reasons why some songs become popular, 212. Prizes offered for a national hymn, 213. Reasons for and against "The Star Spangled Banner" being adopted as the national song, 214. Examples of Revolutionary songs and hymns, 215. Examples of naval songs written during the war of 1812, 216. Mexican War songs, 217. Campaign songs of 1840, 218. Samples of Clay and Polk campaign songs, 219. Extracts from "Rough and Ready Songsters," 220. "Liberty Party," "Free Soil," Democratic and Republican songs, 221. Lincoln songs of 1860 and 1864, 223. McClellan songs of 1864, 224. A Seymour, and some Greeley songs, 225. Horace Greeley bondsman for Jefferson Davis, 227. Garfield, Hancock, Blaine and Logan and Cleveland songs, 228. Thurman and his "red bandanna," 229. A Bryan and a McKinley song, 230. Examples of Confederate war songs, 231. Some origins suggested for the term "Dixie," 232. The varying fortunes of war reflected in the songs of the period, 233. Union war lyrics, 234. Origin and irenic influence of "The Blue and the Gray," 235.
- McCormick, John H., M.D., Communication by..... 170
- Madison, Mrs. James, Letters from..... 181, 182, 183, 184, 194
- Master of Ceremonies, The first, of the White House, 170. French influences in early American affairs, 171. Dignified and ceremonious manners during the first two administrations, 172. Jefferson and "democratic simplicity," 173. The "little White House," Jean Pierre Sioussat, 174. Designed by the Church for a priest, he chose to be a sailor, 175. Member of Minister Merry's official family and subsequently doorkeeper of the White House, 176. Mrs. Madison's strong personality, 177. "Dove parties," 178. Incongruous guests at weekly drawing rooms of President Monroe, 179. The coming of the British and the saving of Stuart's Washington, 180. Mr. Sioussat takes the White House keys to the Russian Minister's and with his family seeks protection at the French Minister's, 181.

Wagon filled with plate and valuables, 182. Washington's portrait not to be rolled, 183. Paul Jennings's account of the picture episode, 184. Houses used as Executive Mansion during the remainder of the Madison administration, 185. President Grant revives the office of Master of Ceremonies, 187. Some of the duties of the office, 188. Incumbent must be a fine linguist, 189. Positions subsequently held by Mr. Sioussat and some account of his family, 190. The White House in 1811, 191. Mr. Sioussat's care of Mrs. Madison's property, 192. The home of the Cosmos Club, 193. Mrs. Madison to Mr. Sioussat, 194.

Members, List of, on April 11, 1904.....	266
Morgan, James Dudley, M.D., Communication by.....	1
Remarks of, in a discussion.....	107
Morris, Miss Maud Burr, Communication by.....	49
Necrology	284
Officers for 1904.....	264
Proceedings of the Society.....	275
Report of the Chronicler.....	282
Curator	280
Recording Secretary	279
Treasurer	278
Roberts, Gen. B. K., Remarks by, on present strength and equipment of Fort Washington.....	18
Sioussat, Jean Pierre	170
Spofford, Ainsworth R., Communication by.....	211
Stelle, Pontius D., The Life and Times of, 49. His forebears in France and America, 50. Portraits of ancestors, 51. Story of the bullet hole; marriage of Poncet Stelle, 52. Birth of Pontius D. and tradition accounting for his middle name, 53. Data concerning early home, career in Trenton and marriage, 54. Removes to Washington and opens hotel, 55. Purchases Tunnicliff's Hotel, 56. Description of and data concerning Tunnicliff's Hotel, 57. Fortune brought by Mr. Stelle from Trenton and sunk in the hotel business, 58. Gifts from a Turkish embassy and social gatherings, 59. Dancing assembly and Fourth of July dinner, 60. Abandons the hotel business and accepts position under Government, 61. His miniature at the age of twenty-seven; the ancestry of his wife, 62. Honor accorded her at Trenton and her interview with Gen. Ross, 63. Death of a precocious child; birth of first white girl in Washington, 64. Edward B. and Thomas J. Stelle, 65.
Street Nomenclature of Washington City, 237. Narrow streets of Rome, 238. In 1515, twenty feet an unexampled width for streets, 239. In 1791, the "Federal City" officially renamed,

240. Width of Washington streets, 240. Street nomenclature and building regulations adopted from Philadelphia, 242. Brief system of mnemonics for determining locations, 243. Confusion and mistakes because of similarity of sounds, 244. English criticism of the letter and number system, 245. Boston's system of memorial street names, 246. Enduring and dignified recognition of a nation's gratitude, 247. Some present confusing designations were better abolished, 248. Distinguished names to be substituted for lettered streets north, 249. For lettered streets south, 250. Duplication of names, 251. How far the suggested changes would reach, 252. Substitutes suggested to eliminate duplicates, 253-256. Suggested alterations to secure a grand encircling avenue, 257. The old Georgetown and Bladensburg road, 257-260. Our national capital an inheritance to be cherished and intelligently improved, 260.
- Townsend, George Alfred, Communication by..... 195
- Warburton, formerly Digges estate, now Fort Washington..... 5
- Washington Library Company, Early History of the, and Other Local Libraries, 20. Libraries in the District prior to 1811, 20. Advantages promised by the Washington Library and committee to raise funds therefor, 21. Date of charter, 22. Fluctuating prices of shares, note, p. 22. Shareholders in arrears denied the privilege of taking out books, 23. Duties of board of directors, 24. Duties of the officers, 25. Privileges of the library, 26. Average price to be paid for, and the arrangement of books, 28. First home of the library, 29. Subsequent location, 30, 36, 37. Noted subscribers to shares in perpetuity, 31. Purchase of the Davis and Force Circulating Library, 32, 35, 36. The Dinsmore and Somerville circulating libraries and the Prentiss reading room, 32-34. Georgetown libraries, note, p. 20, 34. Lottery proposed to raise funds to buy a lot and erect a building, 36. Book auctions, 37, 38.
- Washington's Houses on Capitol Hill, 66. Suggested origin of the present name of the "Hillman House," 66. Letter from Washington to Thornton, 67. Alterations in the houses because of change of street grade, 68. Burning of houses and destruction of Government records, 69. History of property as traced from assessor's records, 70.
- Weller, Michael I., Remarks by, on the taking of Washington by the British, 16-18.
- Why the City Went Westward: A Discussion.
 L'Enfant's idea of how the capitol building should face, 107. Features of his map and of his plans, 108. His letters prove that he expected a westward trend, 109. Bridge over Rock Creek, 110. In 1792, work to be pushed forward, 111. Lot purchased by L'Enfant, 112.

The plan of the City and its expected growth, 114. Proposed location of governmental and diplomatic buildings, 115. Original main front of the Capitol changed by Latrobe, 116. Changes in the north and south fronts of the White House, 117.

Development of the eastern section and the policy of the land owners, 118. Early homes on the Eastern Branch, 119. Blodgett as author, architect and speculator, 119-121. Casanovia, 121. Carroll's Row, 122. Thomas Law's vigilance in behalf of the eastern section, 123. Residence of William Mayne Duncanson, 124. Early stores, 125. Abraham Young's second house and his widow, 126. Twenty buildings, 127. Persuasive eloquence of Robert Morris, 128. Law suit decided against Carroll, 129. Prohibitive prices not asked by large property owners, 130. Holt's public garden; the "Sugar house," 131. Barry's wharf, 132. Wirt's description of Mr. Templeman's slackwire performances, 133.

The central section of the City, 135. Tiber Creek in 1803, 136. Result of location of Government Departments, 137. Effort to change location; reason defeating it, 138-141. Early roads and bridges, 142. Centre Market, 143. Duane's office and book store, 144. Public and private schools, 145.

Zevely, Douglass, Communication by..... 146